

Thank you so much for meeting with me!

Focusing on your finances can be scary. I know it was for me and my family. And it is okay to feel scared. It's so very personal! I'm proud of you for taking the first step towards your financial freedom.

As you decide if financial coaching is right for you, I want you to imagine ...

- How less stressful life will be four months from now.
- The confidence you'll have as you manage your finances. (You'll be telling your money where to go, rather than it choosing for you!)
- There really is a light at the end of the tunnel—and it is a BRIGHT future!

"I was living paycheck to paycheck. Financial discipline was something foreign to me. [Cyndia] taught me to manage my finances.

I have found extra money every week!

I was able to plan my dream wedding because of her."

—Nelson

I want to help you achieve the same thing for you and your family. I know that together we can help you realize dreams you never thought would be possible because of debt. I know this is a scary subject, and you may be thinking you should do it later. I promise that once we get started, the fear will lessen. You may even start to sleep better. I encourage you to contact me today. Let's get you started on the journey to financial freedom.

Helping you manage your money with confidence,

Cyndia

I'm ready to start my journey!
